

As we are closing the pandemic year of 2020 and with the challenges of lockdown confinement, we are grateful to God for the grace for having been Covid- free for so long. Looking forward to a successful year with sincere appreciation. It has been a real pleasure and want to say, "Thank you" and "If kisses were snowflakes, we would send you a blizzard."

For Unto Us A Child Is Born

Our beautiful Christmas tree adorned with stuffed envelopes from the families. Thank you for your generosity!
